

Brady Corporation is an international manufacturer and marketer of complete solutions that help customers increase safety, security, productivity and performance and include high-performance labels, signs, safety devices, printing systems and software.

The company's product lines include do-it yourself printing systems, including industrial label printers, high performance label materials, signs and software solutions. Brady also offers complete product and service solutions for safety and facility identification, lockout/tagout, spill control, and regulatory compliance, among others.

Products

- Printers and label makers
- Labels, markers and tapes
- Health and safety signs, warning signs, and traffic signs
- Lockout/tagout signs and lockout devices
- Software (Procedure-writing software, label design software, cable management software)
- Absorbents and spill containment
- Pipe and valve marking
- Safety tags
- Wire and cable identification
- Workplace safety and security
- Brand security
- Custom engineered products

